

Hi Coach,

Welcome to the Level 1 Coach Education Course.

As previously outlined, the course will be conducted completely online. The course includes theory as well as practical components which will all be covered through the online platform.

As you have completed the registration process, you will be enrolled into the virtual classroom and you will receive an email invitation to the classroom

On Tuesday 1 March 2022 at 2.00 PM (GST).

If you have not received the email invitation by 2.00 PM (GST), please email ziyaadp@iccacademy.com directly in order to follow up (make sure to check your inbox, spam folder, and so on).

The Google Classroom will be the main centre of communication for the course as all resources will be available there as well as our discussion forum in which I would encourage you all to engage with myself as well as your fellow coaches. These discussions are an integral part of the learning process and is a good practice.

The content will be uploaded and made available to you on Wednesday 2 March 2022 from 11.00 am (GST) and will include the following components:

- Cricket 101
- Introduction to Coaching
- Speed Coaching
- Principles of Feedback
- Coaching Groups and Safety
- Creating Learning Environments

Once the content has been made available to you, you may engage with it at your own convenience. I would recommend that you complete as much of the resources as possible before the Zoom call which will be scheduled for Monday 7 March 2022. You will be split into groups and the call will be scheduled directly with each group. The purpose of the call is to briefly review the content that has been uploaded and address any questions or concerns that you may have in relation to the content. For this call to be beneficial to all, I would encourage you to review all the uploads prior to the call.

After the call is completed, you will be given some time to review the content prior to the practical component being released. You will receive the details for the practical task on Tuesday 8 March 2022 and the task will be due by close of business on Sunday 13 March 2022.

Thereafter, it will be assessed and you will receive your feedback regarding your tasks. If you have completed the tasks to the expected standard, your certificate will be awarded. If not, you will have the opportunity to resubmit your tasks. Please note that should you be required to resubmit, the resubmission process will take up to 7 days.

During this time, I will be available on the online platform to participate in any discussions and respond to your queries. I will also be available via email (ziyaadp@iccacademy.com). My availability will be as follows:

Daily between 8.30 AM and 4.30 PM (GST)
